After their presentation, there is room for questions and answers. We foresee half an hour for discussion at least. All of the stakeholders present should/can contribute to the discussion, even if they are not listed as a speaker.
11h30-13h00	Lunch break (with local stakeholders if possible)
13h00-15h00	New approaches to citizen involvement- interactive workshop on how to involve local stakeholders in the action planning process. Hosted by Julie Poppe, city of Mechelen. We will work together on one Miro-board to reflect on the way in which we involve local stakeholders in our action planning process, and to learn from each other's methodologies to involve local stakeholders or citizens in policy making. The goal is to make a self-assessment of your action planning process, together with your own local stakeholders, in a stage in which you can still mitigate. The second goal is to be inspired by methodologies and reflections of all project partners regarding approaches to involve citizens, while drafting our action plans (which need to be ready by February 2022).

Day 2: 3rd of June 2021

9h00-10h30	Update of the policy situation and action plan progress Each partner prepares a presentation of 15 minutes max. (10 minutes + 5 minutes room for questions and answers) in which the partner highlights the state of the art of their action plan and policy situation. We will start each presentation with lessons learned from the workshop the day before and continue to dive into the concrete actions of our action plans, linked to the good practices which inspired us in the drafting of the action plan.
10h30-10h45	Comfort break
10h45-12h00	Steering group meeting (agenda attached separately)
